

Cutting Edge Science for Parkinson's Clinicians

Wednesday, 26th November 2025

Virtual & Halifax Hall, Sheffield University Campus

Programme subject to change

09:00 Registration opens

09:30 Welcome and Introduction

Chairs: Dr Neil Archibald, consultant neurologist & clinical director for neurology and stroke, South Tees Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust & Dr Lucia Ricciardi, senior lecturer in neurology & consultant neurologist, City St George's, University of London

09:45 Gene testing for the clinician - who, what and why?

Dr Racquel Real

10:30 Psilocybin and Parkinson's

Chairs: Dr Neil Archibald & Dr Lucia Ricciardi interview Dr Ellen Bradley, assistant professor & lead psychiatrist, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioural Sciences, University of California & Parkinson's disease Research, Education, and Clinical Center

11:15 Break

11:45 "Can we/we can cure Parkinson's?"

Dr Simon Stott, deputy director of research, Cure Parkinson's

12:30 Towards better diagnosis - how to make the best use of imaging

Dr Chris Lambert, principal research associate, Functional Imaging Laboratory University College London & consultant neurologist specialising in movement disorders, National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery

13:15 Lunch

Cutting Edge Science for Parkinson's Clinicians

Complex disease:

14:15      Infusion therapies - how to select, what to use and how to use it

Dr Lucia Riccardi & Alison Leake, Parkinson's disease nurse specialist,
St George's University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

15:00      Comfort break

15:30      DBS - what's new in the field and when should we refer?

Mr Akbar Hussain, consultant neurosurgeon, Royal Victoria Infirmary

16:15      How should we use botulinum in the movement disorder clinic - and who should use it?

Dr Carla Cordivari, neurologist and consultant clinical neurophysiologist,
National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery

17:00      Meeting close